

The Tunes Of Glory

Andy Stewart
The Black Bear

Now when the pipes are ringing and the kilts are swinging
And your heart is singing as you gaily march along
You hear the story that is brave and roary
In the tunes of glory of an old Scots song

If you're standing near them and you ever hear them
You will want to cheer them as you feel the glory there
The music fills you and the drum beat wills you
And the rythm thrills you of the old Black Bear

*Brave are the orders we carry before us
Brave are the hearts that will lift in the chorus
Hear them playing, hear them saying
That is the story in the tunes of glory*

If you're standing near them and you ever hear them
You will want to cheer them as you feel the glory there
The music fills you and the drum beat wills you
And the rythm thrills you of the old Black Bear

*Brave are the orders we carry before us
Brave are the hearts that will lift in the chorus
Hear them playing, hear them saying
That is the story in the tunes of glory*

- Grant/Stewart -